WHAT TO KNOW ABOUT PAYING YOUR RENT & EVICTIONS DURING COVID-19

Evictions for non-payment of rent, and charges/fees for nonpayment of rent, have been temporarily suspended.

Rent is still due during this time period and will accumulate if unpaid. A tenant's responsibility to pay rent continues even while in isolation, quarantine or at a medical facility

You can still be evicted for drug abuse, criminal activity, lease violations, fraud, repeated minor violations, other good cause

If you lost your job or had a significant loss of income, you may be eligible for assistance with rent through the county, documentation is required to support financial hardship during COVID-19. You must apply to be considered.

If you are behind on rent after July, you must speak with your property management to discuss payment plan options and discuss ways to continue in your housing
